

The Character of His Disciples and Living a Life of Service

Created to See Glory

Psalm 145:5 On the glorious splendor of Your majesty and on Your wonderful works, I will meditate.

We were created to know God. We were made to know Him in the fullness of His attributes. God made us and all things to demonstrate His glory. For much of our lives we ignore the purpose for which we were made. This failure is ours alone. Our sin distracts us from His purposes in our lives. It is impossible to fix our eyes on the glory of the Creator when our eyes are fixed on our own desires. Stephen Charnock made an excellent illustration in regard to this. "An eye, taken up with the presence of one object, is not at leisure to be filled with another: he that looks intently upon the sun, shall have nothing for a while but the sun in his eye. Oppose every intruding thought and put to silence all that competes for our awe of his Majesty."

The psalmist says it this way, "...on Your wonderful works, I will meditate." Meditation fixes our mind on a particular thing. Meditations are the prevailing thoughts during our morning commute. Mediations are the thoughts that dominate our mind when the lights go out and we struggle to fall asleep. Psalm 145 was written by David. Maybe we can imagine the young shepherd David with the all night task of watching his sheep. What dominated his thinking? David reflected on the majestic character of God and on the wonder of God's works in human history. It may be that David's extensive time working the graveyard shift with his animals provided provided the perfect backdrop for this psalm. Imagine, David staring at the night sky. Unhindered by manmade lights, the human eye can see 100 million stars at night in the Milky Way. On a hill outside Bethlehem 3000 years ago, nothing prevented David from seeing the wondrous works of God. Nothing, other than the constant distraction of straying sheep, other shepherds, physical exhaustion, worries and anxieties, plans for the future, regrets from the past, and a host of other things that may have come across David's mind.

Even as I attempt to complete this final chapter for the studies, I have been interrupted a dozen times. The phone rings, my kids coming in and out of my office, individuals with "quick" questions, staff members checking on some church business, emails, worries about the schedule for the rest of the week, plans for tomorrow, and the list goes on and on. We battle to have a few moments of focused thinking. We fight to get time and energy to focus our minds. Interestingly enough, if the task at hand is my favorite sports team, I am fully enthralled. Surely God is worthy of greater attention than a sporting event?

What is our purpose in life? Why are we here? Why is the creation here? We were made for the glory of God. That is why God created us. The glory of God is the coalescence of all the attributes of God and God's demonstration of those attributes in His work in creation and human history. When we see His grace, we are seeing one aspect of His glory. The grace of God points us back to the full panoply of His attributes. When we observe the power of God, God's power directs our thinking back to the God of power and thus to the whole collection of His attributes, namely His glory. This is why God created the universe. He created us and all things for His glory. All things point back to the nature of the God who made us. The greatest activity, the highest calling, the grandest task of our lives is focusing our minds on His glory.

Having displayed the glory of His Father throughout His public ministry, Jesus gave this task to His followers. All followers of Christ Jesus are called to declare the Gospel of Jesus Christ and to display the life and ministry of Jesus Christ through our life of holiness and ministry.

John 13:1-17 Now before the Feast of the Passover, Jesus knowing that His hour had come that He would depart out of this world to the Father, having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the end. <sup>2</sup>During supper, the devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon, to betray Him, <sup>3</sup>Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He had come forth from God and was going back to God, <sup>4</sup>got up from supper, and laid aside His garments; and taking a towel, He girded Himself. <sup>5</sup>Then He poured water into the basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel with which He was girded. <sup>6</sup>So He came to Simon Peter. He said to Him, "Lord, do You wash my feet?" <sup>7</sup>Jesus answered and said to him, "What I do you do not realize now, but you will understand hereafter." <sup>8</sup>Peter said to Him, "Never shall You wash my feet!" Jesus answered him, "If I do not wash you, you have no part with Me." <sup>9</sup>Simon Peter said to Him, "Lord, then wash not only my feet, but also my hands and my head." <sup>10</sup>Jesus said to him, "He who has bathed needs only to wash his feet, but is completely clean; and you are clean, but not all of you." <sup>11</sup>For He knew the one who was betraying Him; for this reason He said, "Not all of you are clean." <sup>12</sup>So when He had washed their feet, and taken His garments and reclined at the table again, He said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? <sup>13</sup>You call Me Teacher and Lord; and you are right, for so I am. <sup>14</sup>If I then, the Lord and the Teacher, washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. <sup>15</sup>For I gave you an example that you also should do as I did to you. <sup>16</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, a slave is not greater than his master, nor is one who is sent greater than the one who sent him. <sup>17</sup>If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them.

Jesus Christ left us an example to follow. We are called to imitate His life and ministry. He is the Son of God and yet washed the disciples' feet. He is the Creator of the universe and yet He knelt down in humility to minister to the disciples. Their reaction to His humility in this moment is striking. "Lord, do You wash my feet?" Simon Peter articulated what the entire group must have been thinking. The irony of God serving humanity takes on greater weight when we consider that just prior to this event some of the disciples had been debating which one of them was the greatest. Jesus confronted the disciples and declared greatness for His followers is to be marked by being a servant. Then Jesus showed them exactly what He meant by this. The author of this account reminds us all of the transcendent moment that provided the backdrop to this event prior to its telling. "He loved them to the end." Jesus Christ was executed less than 24 hours later. This was His greatest act of service and love. He served most and loved greatest by giving His all for us. In Mark 10, the words of Christ drive this truth home.

Mark 10:43-45 ...but whoever wishes to become great among you shall be your servant; <sup>44</sup>and whoever wishes to be first among you shall be slave of all. <sup>45</sup>For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many."

The Son of Man served others, even to His death. Therefore, all who claim to follow Him will serve others just as Jesus Christ served. In doing so, we display the glory of God. God made us to see glory. Christ saved us to display glory. By serving others we demonstrate the love and kindness of God as exemplified in the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Hello from Matt and Ann Elise

I am a 30-year-old native Texan originally from Sugar Land. I was raised in a Christian home. I came to know Christ at the age of 11 and surrendered to the ministry at the age of 17.

I served in the United States Marine Corps for 4 years (2008 – 2012) and was able to live in Japan and to travel to some amazing places like Hiroshima, Thailand, South Korea, Hawaii, and Iwo Jima.

My wife, Ann Elise and I have been married for 7 years. We were married on June 13, 2009 in Sugar Land, TX. We have two dogs. Our eight-year-old miniature Schnauzer is named Charlie Brown and our three-year-old Weimaraner is named Luna Brown.

I earned my Bachelor of Arts in Pastoral Studies in June of 2012 from Southwestern College, in Winfield, Kansas. On December 16, 2016 I earned my Masters of Divinity from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth.

I have served in churches such as Sugar Creek Baptist Church, Sugar Land, TX, First Baptist Church Fresno, TX, and Southcliff Baptist Church, Fort Worth, TX, and most recently Hampton Road Baptist Church. Positions I have held at these churches were youth pastor, youth ministry assistant, youth ministry intern, college leader and Sunday school teacher.

My wife and I have a goal to reach out to all 7th – 12th grade students providing a place where fellowship and fun can occur through developing their relationships with God, themselves and the community. We seek to help strengthen relationships between students and families as well as to strive to strengthen relationships between the students and the church body. Finally, we look to grow student's relationships with each other.
